

Cooks, get your knives!

The 37th Salon Gourmets, Europe's most exclusive International Fine Food and Beverages Fair which will have Estrella Galicia as its official beer, hosts the exciting, vibrant and surprising competition, the 5th National Championship Art of Cisoria El Encinar de Humienta / Grupo Gourmets. An unprecedented gastronomic spectacle in Spain that leaves no one indifferent.

The reason? The skill of the participants and the best beef tenderloin on the market provided by El Encinar de Humienta. A juicy, tasty and tender meat that the 6 finalists will have to cut up with professional precision and prepare a delicious steak tartar.

The championship, divided into two phases, is not to be missed. In the first round they will have 25 minutes to prove to the Jury that they are knife true masters by making clean cuts and displaying their technique, speed, dexterity and cleanliness when cutting the sirloin.

Once the meat has been cut, the timer will start again for 20 minutes to prepare their best steak tartar recipe, which will be judged on presentation, originality, flavor and seasoning.

The two contestants with the highest scores will receive a prize of 700 € and 300 €, the rest of the participants 100 € and a set of knives provided by El Encinar de Humienta.

In addition, throughout the championship, the public will be able to taste its new and innovative cut, the beef tenderloin on the bone, obtained through a dry aged process.

#SG24

SALÓN
GOURMETS