

Four days to enjoy the quality of Galician produce

Hook fished, tetilla cheese, Galician honey and wines from the Ribeira Sacra DO are just a sample of all the products that this year the Galician Regional Government will display for the professional visitors who come to the leading International Fine Food and Beverages Fair in Europe.

Galicia, through the Regional Council of the Sea and Rural Affairs, will be present both in the activities it organises every day of Salon Gourmets and at its stand (located in hall 6) which, year after year, attracts the attention of visitors for its originality and the number of co-exhibiting companies, 23 this year, from the Galician fishing sector, including preserved, fresh and frozen fish.

As for the activities that will take place from 7 to 10 April, let's begin with the Merluza do Pincho Challenge by Xunta de Galicia do Mar, which will take place on Tuesday 8 April on the Gourmets Auditorium stage (hall 8). Six participants will have to clean and use this product par excellence from the Galician fish markets to create an original recipe that will surprise the jury. The rest of the ingredients will be free to choose, although at least two of them must be products endorsed with the Galician Differentiated Quality seal.

The Gourmets Aula stage (hall 4) will host the Consellería do Mar y Medio Rural - Xunta de Galicia Atlantic Cooking Day on Wednesday 9, a day full of activities from 10:00 to 19:00 hours in which the seafood and market garden products of the Atlantic strip will be showcased.

For its part, Galician PGI Honey will play a special role in the 4th Gourmet Pizza Spanish Championship by DO Ribeira Sacra (Pizzas Stage, hall 8), as it will be one of the ingredients that scores in all the categories of this championship and will also be present in the special official pizza of the competition, prepared by Jesús Marquina, which will be paired with wines from the Ribeira Sacra DO and will also have to be paired with the pizzas prepared.

Finally, the Cheese Workshop / PDO Tetilla Cheese Xunta de Galicia, an activity aimed at the youngest organised within the Children's Workshops. This is a space created just for children where they learn the importance of a healthy diet through fine products. By seeing, touching and tasting, they learn the basic principles of a healthy diet and in this case, getting to know in depth this product, so representative of the Galician province.
