A trip through global gastronomy

Salón de Gourmets is a member of The Global Association of the Exhibition Industry (UFI) and, likewise, holds the International Fair distinction since 1991, acknowledged by the Ministry of Economy, Industry and Competitiveness. Between April 24-27, it will become the largest gastronomical delicatessen showcase, with the participation of countries such as Germany, Argentina, Belgium, Canada \(Country of Honor\) Chile, Colombia, Ecuador, France, Hungary, Indonesia, Iran, Italy, Japan, Latvia, Peru, Portugal, Serbia, Sweden, Switzerland and the United Kingdom.

Many companies, national and from abroad, participate in Salón de Gourmets, sponsored by their corresponding institutions, autonomous communities, regional governments, chambers of commerce, regulatory bodies, denominations of origin, and other public entities.

In the 31st edition, professionals visiting the fair will discover the most characteristic, top-quality foods and beverages from the entire Spanish geography. Traditional products will be exhibited by leading Spanish companies from Andalusia, Aragon, Asturias, Balearic Islands, Canary Islands, Cantabria, Castille La Mancha, Castille Leon, Community of Valencia, Extremadura, Galicia, Madrid, Murcia, Navarra and the Basque Country, as well as the Regional Governments of Almeria, Avila, Burgos, Cadiz, Granada, Jaen, Malaga, Segovia and Soria.

This gastronomical diversity, including the sector's most innovative, attracts professionals from around the world, generating unique business opportunities.

Salón de Gourmets is a highly anticipated gastronomical event, the only one held annually, and that sets the pace for the upcoming season's culinary and wine trends.
